§ 1. Rates of interest for deposits

64. The Bank establishes the ceiling value of interest rates for the bank deposits in the amount of 0%-25% per annum.
65. At that the authorized body of the Bank approves the fixed interest rates for the bank deposits depending on the type and conditions of the specific deposit product within the established values of the deposit interest rates in accordance with the terms and conditions of the deposit /account agreement and in the amount not exceeding the maximum interest rates for the bank deposits of natural persons, established by Kazakhstan deposit insurance fund JSC.
66. Interest rates on deposits are established differentially depending on the term of deposit placement on a savings account, the type of deposit, currency and deposit amount in compliance with the requirements of paragraph 71 of the Resolution of the Board of the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan of September 13, 2017 year №170 "On the establishment of normative values and methods for calculating prudential standards and other mandatory norms and limits for the size of the bank's capital for a certain date and the Settlement Rules and limits of the open currency position of the bank."
67. Calculation of the amount of interest on deposit is made according to conditions of deposit. In order to calculate the amount of interest on deposits of entities and individuals, including individuals engaged in activities without establishment of an entity, it is a practice to calculate the actual number of days of that money is on savings account assuming there is 365/366 calendar days in a year, unless otherwise is provided by the contract of bank deposit. Interest is accrued for the opening balance on the saving account on each day, with consideration of each change in the amount of deposit, for the actual number of days that money is on savings account. At this point the day of crediting of money at the savings account and the day of debiting of such from the savings account are deemed to be the same day.

68. The bank shall pay interest to the depositor for the amount of deposit in the amount determined by the bank deposit/account contract, concluded between the Bank and the client. Payment of interest accrued on deposit of legal entity except for the cases stipulated by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan shall be made with withdrawal of income tax at the source of payment.
69. The Bank shall not be entitled to change unilaterally the amount of interest on deposits placed on the savings account, except for the cases stipulated in the bank deposit /account contract and paragraph 70-72 of these Regulations.
70. In the event of changing the interest rate for deposit downwards upon renewal (prolongation) of the term of the bank deposit in accordance with the terms of the bank deposit contract without conclusion of a supplementary agreement, the Bank shall inform the depositor about reduction of interest before the expiry of the deposit placement term in the manner and within the time limits stipulated in the bank deposit contract.
71. The Bank is entitled to increase the amount of remuneration for the deposit upon the notice of the depositor, in the manner and within the time limits stipulated in the bank deposit contract.
72. If the Bank makes a decision on termination of the deposit type, the deposit amount may remain on the same account without the Bank performing the accrual and payment of remuneration from the date following the expiry date of the corresponding deposit term, if a longer period of accrual and payment of remuneration is not provided for by the bank contribution.

Chapter 7. General conditions of providing bank loans (credits)

73. The Bank conducts operations on lending money to individuals; individuals engaged in activities without establishment of entity, and entities in accordance with the normative legal acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan, internal loan policy and other internal documents of the Bank regulating the order and conditions of money lending in the Bank.

 - 3) minimum term - not less than 1 (one) day;
 - 4) maximum term of providing loans (credits) based on the intended use of the credit - no more than twenty (20) years.
75. Credit limit per borrower shall be established by the Bank in accordance with the requirements of the normative legal act of the authorized state body.
76. When considering a bank loan disbursement, the Bank takes into account the credit scoring of the individual client, calculated on the basis of its own methodology, or the credit scoring provided by the credit bureau.
77. When considering the client's request for the credit (loan) issuance, the Bank requires the client to submit a set of documents stipulated by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan and internal documents of the Bank. The Bank is entitled to refuse the client to accept application for the credit (loan) issuance in case of the client's failure to provide a set of documents, or submission of incorrect/invalid documents.

The authorized body of the Bank on the basis of conclusions (expert opinions) of the structural subdivisions of the Bank shall take a decision on issuing a loan or refuses to issue the loan.

At the same time, the bank refuses to provide mortgage loans in foreign currency to individuals who do not have income in this currency within 6 (six) consecutive months preceding the date of application of individual.

78. Under the contract of bank loan with floating interest rate, the schedule of repayment of loan (credit) is prepared on the date of its issue, and subsequently the sizes of regular payments are adjusted and brought to the attention of the borrower (co-borrower) in the order established by the contract of bank loan.
79. Money lending to individuals, individuals engaged in activities without establishment of legal entity, and legal entities suggests that it is necessary for the Bank to assess certain factors, circumstances and conditions that affect the process of making decision on the issuance of bank loan (credit) by the relevant authorized persons of the Bank, including:
- 1) legal status and region of residence of the client - an individual, presence (absence) of permanent or temporary place of employment or other sources of income; real estate; obligations to third parties, including other banks; credit history; timely execution of previous contractual terms in relationships with the Bank; parameters and characteristics of the application for bank loan (credit), including amount and type of currency, time and purpose of use; level of enforcement of its obligations, possible risks of failure to repay or untimely repayment, as well as other significant conditions accepted in banking practice for conclusion of the contract of bank loan;
 - 2) legal status and place of registration of the client – a legal entity, legal structure and the presence of territorial structural subdivisions, stable activity during not less than 6 (six) months, its financial condition for the last reporting date and real prospects for business development, presence or absence of credit history; information about business efficiency and obligations to third parties (presence of property encumbrances); timely execution of previous contractual obligations to the Bank; parameters and characteristics of the application for bank loan (credit), including amount and type of currency, terms of mastering, purpose; level of enforcement of its obligations, value of associated risks of failure to repay or untimely repayment of borrowed funds;

- 3) place of registration of the client - an individual engaged in activities without establishment of entity, stable activity during not less than 6 (six) months, its financial condition for the last reporting date and real prospects for business development, presence or absence of credit history, information about business efficiency and obligations to third parties (presence of property encumbrances); timely execution of previous contractual obligations to the Bank; parameters and characteristics of the application for bank loan (credit), including its amount and type of currency, terms of spending, purpose; level of enforcement of its obligations, value of associated risks of failure to repay or untimely repayment of borrowed funds;
 - 4) information on the amount of interest on bank loan (credit), adequacy of the proposed method of enforcement of obligations by the borrower, optimal terms of repayment of bank loan (credit), as well as other information regarding the characteristics of considered loan product and measures of reducing the risk of non-repayment of issued bank loan (credit).
80. Before entering into a mortgage loan contract with an individual not related to entrepreneurial activity, the Bank performs a comprehensive, complete and qualitative assessment of the borrower's creditworthiness (solvency) in accordance with the Bank's internal documents, for definition of the following:
- 1) the possibility of performance of his/her obligations by the borrower under a mortgage loan contract of an individual not related to entrepreneurial activity, which is confirmed by one of the following documents at the discretion of the Bank:
 - a) an extract of the Unified Pension Savings Fund from an individual retirement account for the last 6 (six) months;
 - b) an income certificate from the place of employment for the last 6 (six) months;
 - c) a tax statement on the individual income tax of the borrower – natural person for the last tax period;
 - d) other documents reflecting the existence of the possibility of performing the borrower's obligations under a mortgage loan contract of an individual not associated with entrepreneurial activity in accordance with the Bank's internal documents;
 - 2) the presence or absence of a borrower's credit history for the last 6 (six) months;
 - 3) the existence or absence of tax arrears and other mandatory payments to the budget;
 - 4) the presence or absence of debts to the third parties, reflected in the credit report.
- A proper assessment of the borrower's creditworthiness in conjunction with information on the borrower takes into account information on the individual (co-borrower) acting under the mortgage loan agreement of an individual not associated with entrepreneurial activity, as a jointly and severally liable for loan repayment obligations.

The Bank does not bear responsibility for the presentation by the borrower (co-borrower) of inaccurate information for the implementation of a proper assessment of the borrower's creditworthiness by the Bank as provided for in this paragraph.

81. In case if the terms of providing a loan (credit) contain requirements for the conclusion of contracts of insurance and/or to conduct assessment in order to determine the market value of the property held as security, the borrower/pledger has the right to choose insurance company and/or appraiser. The contract of bank loan does not oblige the borrower to insure his/her life and health.
82. During the period of servicing the bank loan, the Bank upon request of the borrower or the pledger (in compliance with requirements to disclosure of the bank secrecy, provided by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On banks and banking activities") within three (3) working days from the date of receiving the request, in the written form provides him/her with the following information:
 - 1) on the amount of money paid to the Bank;
 - 2) on the amount of past due debt (in case of presence);
 - 3) on balance of debt;
 - 4) on sizes and terms of regular payments;
 - 5) on credit limit (in case of presence).
83. Where provided by the contract of bank loan, the Bank periodically provides the client with information specified in paragraph 82 of the present Regulations, by method provided by the contract of bank loan.
84. The information specified in paragraph 82 of the present Regulations is provided specifying amount of principal debt, interest, commission, forfeit and other penalties, as well as other amounts that are subject to payment.
85. The Bank shall not be entitled to change the terms and conditions of the bank loan contract unilaterally except for the cases of their improvement for the borrower.

The following shall be understood as the improvement of terms and conditions of the bank loan contract for the borrower for the purpose of this paragraph:

- 1) Change towards decrease or full cancellation of commissions and other fees for provision of services related to servicing the bank loan;
- 2) Change towards decrease or full cancellation of forfeit (fine, penalty);
- 3) Change towards decrease of the interest rate under the bank loan contract;
- 4) Deferral and (or) payments by installment under the bank loan contract.

The bank loan contract can stipulate an additional list of improving terms and conditions for the borrower.

86. In the case of applying by the bank the improving terms and conditions, the borrower shall be notified about changes in the terms and conditions of the bank loan contract in the manner specified in the bank loan contract. The borrower shall be entitled within 14 (fourteen) calendar days from the date of receipt of the notice to waive the improving terms and conditions provided by the Bank by sending appropriate written notice to the Bank. At that the terms and conditions of the bank loan contract will be recognized by the parties to be changed, in case of non-receipt by the Bank of written notice from the borrower on waiver of changing the contract terms and conditions toward their improvement upon expiration of the deadline set by the bank loan contract.

§ 1. Rates of interest for loans (credits)

87. Maximum values of interest rates on loans (credits) are established by the Bank at a rate of 0.1% per annum, while the maximum amount is determined based on the maximum annual effective interest rate established by the National Bank of the Republic of Kazakhstan on credits.

88. At that the Bank authorized body approves the fixed amount of interest on loans (credits) depending on the type and conditions of a particular credit product within the established limit of interest rates on loans (credits).

The interest rate on provided bank loan (credit) is accrued at the rate of actual days in the year for actual number of days of using the amount of loan (credit) by the borrower. The day of issuance and repayment of the loan (credit) is accepted as 1 (one) day.

89. The Bank in the contracts of bank loan, including mortgage loans, concluded with individuals, establishes fixed or floating interest rate and specifies the method of repayment of loan (credit) at the borrower's choice from those offered by the Bank as of the date of conclusion of the contract of bank loan.

90. The fixed interest rate cannot be changed by the Bank unilaterally, except for the cases of its changing towards decrease or temporary change towards decrease by the Bank carried out in the manner established by article 34 of the Law on banks and banking activity.

The temporary change of the interest rate towards decrease shall mean reduction of interest rate by the Bank for a certain period of time, after which the interest rate is set in the amount not exceeding the size of the interest rate, which was in effect prior to the temporary change.

91. Upon agreement of the parties the fixed interest rate could be changed to floating interest rate during the validity period of the contract.

92. Upon agreement of the parties the fixed interest rate could be changed towards increasing at the end of its validity period, determined by the contract, but not earlier than 3 (three) years from the date of conclusion of the contract of bank loan. Each subsequent change of fixed interest rate towards increasing is possible upon mutual agreement of the parties after expiration of validity period of fixed rate, but not earlier than 3 (three) years from the date of previous change of fixed interest rate.

93. The Bank does not unilaterally change interest rates established on the date of conclusion of the contract of bank loan with entities, towards increasing, except as provided below:

1) violation of the borrower's obligations to provide accurate information related to obtaining and servicing the loan (credit), in cases provided by the contract of bank loan;

- 2) when the Bank has the right to demand early execution of obligations in cases provided by the Civil Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan, as well as in the following cases provided by the contract of bank loan:
- a) changing the structure of members (shareholders) of the borrower, together owning 10 (ten) or more percent of shares of joint stock company (business partnership), without prior written consent of the Bank;
 - b) violation by the borrower and/or pledger of the right of the Bank, which is the pledgee, to verify by documents and in fact the presence, size, condition and storage conditions of the pledged property, as well as presentation by third parties of claims to the property of the borrower (pledger), including property pledged to the Bank.

Chapter 8. Procedure of working with insolvent clients

94. If there is a delay in the performance of the obligation under the bank loan contract, but not later than in 30 (thirty) days after the date of its occurrence, the Bank notifies the borrower in the manner and within the terms provided for in the bank loan contract on the need to make payments under the bank loan contract specifying the amount of overdue debt and the consequences of the borrower's failure to perform his/her obligations under the bank loan contract.
95. The Bank is entitled to attract a collection agency to notify the borrower on the delay of his/her obligation performance.
96. Within 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date of the delay of the obligation performance, the individual borrower is entitled to visit the Bank and submit a written application containing information on the reasons for such delay in the performance of the obligation under the bank loan contract, income and other confirmed circumstances (facts), which stipulate his/her application to amend the terms of the bank loan contract.
